

R. A. Wright Heads New I. W. L.

CLUB STARTS WITH 75 MEMBERS

The newly planned Izaak Walton League completed its organization Saturday night when the members gathered at Odd Fellow hall and elected officers. Now we have a duly authorized Crawford County Chapter of the league.

Royal A. Wright, manager of the National Log Construction Co., who has taken a leading part in the organization of a local chapter, was elected president. The list of officers is as follows:

President—Royal A. Wright.
1st Vice Pres.—Jack Redhead.
2nd Vice Pres.—Frank Bennett.
3rd Vice Pres.—Ernest Borchers.

Sec. Treas.—Axel M. Peterson. The new president announced that he would select the standing committees later. Under Mr. Wright there is no doubt but that there will be some excellent work done by the local chapter in the way of conservation of our natural resources, fish and game protection and regulation of game laws, and the promotion of outdoor recreational activities.

Guests Of Game Club

The meeting was made doubly pleasant when the members of the chapter had been invited by the members of the Grayling Game club to be their guests that evening. W. H. Hines, of Detroit, president of the Game club, welcomed the members of the I. W. L. and said they were glad to have them as their guests that evening. The club property is at what was formerly known as Simpson lake and contains about 1,000 acres.

Several reels of motion pictures, showing wild life in Michigan, photographed by Walter Hastings, were presented.

First Showing of Industrial Film

Mr. Wright, secretary of the Game Club is also president and manager of the National Log Construction Co., manufacturers of Air-Lock Logs for cabins, homes, etc. During the past summer this firm has produced a motion picture showing the processes of manufacturing Air-Lock logs. Every step of the work was shown from the forests to the finished buildings. Pictures showed how the logs were turned on huge turning lathes, removing the bark and bringing out the grain of the logs; the huge boring machine that removes the center of the logs; grooving and slotting the logs; matching the ends and shaping end pieces for extending corners, and many other operations. It was an excellent demonstration of the manufacturing methods of this firm and established a selling enterprise that is a credit to this progressive firm.

The evening was finished up with a dutch lunch given by the members of the Game club. Everyone had a fine time that evening and will long remember the pleasant occasion.

GROUP I

Group I held their social meeting Tuesday, Nov. 10 at the home of Mrs. Hurl Deckrow.

The time was spent in a general discussion of our previous lesson on Fall Fashions of 1936. The meeting was opened by Chairman Mrs. Floyd Taylor, and the lesson was taken care of by Leader Mrs. Deckrow. Members who were absent for the first lesson were instructed at this time. Patterns were cut for those not having them. A dress was brought by a member to be made over to fit the season's style and several suggestions were offered for its alteration. By the next meeting the group expects to see the dress with its new style.

Several members also brought collars that had been made since the lesson.

Magazines were distributed to show the different fall styles for both dresses and hats.

Mrs. Floyd Taylor appointed Mrs. Dewey Palmer and Mrs. Edwin Chalk for Achievement Day. Members were requested to bring clippings for the Scrap Book that the group will make.

Mrs. Frank Serven, Recreation leader, sponsored a contest. Prizes were awarded to Mrs. Dewey Palmer and Mrs. Joe Kernosky.

Guests were Mrs. Eugene Papendick, Mrs. Joe Kernosky and Mrs. Albert Knibbs. Mrs. Knibbs enrolled, which makes ten members.

The next meeting will be for the second lesson and will be held at the home of Mrs. Deckrow Tuesday, Dec. 8th.

Mrs. B. Wakeley, Secretary.

E. M. T. Ass'n Holds Annual Meeting

T. P. PETERSON ELECTED 2D VICE PRESIDENT

One of the largest and most successful annual meetings ever held by the East Michigan Tourist association was that of last week Thursday. Nearly 600 people sat down to the banquet at Hotel Wenonah in the evening.

The affair began with a luncheon given for the officers and directors of the association and visiting newspaper publishers. Editor Harry Myers of Lapeer was master of ceremonies and a few informal talks were given.

The business meeting was held in the supervisors room of Bay County's new courthouse, where there was plenty of room and the seats were comfortable. President Samuel Yockey of Harrisville presided.

Mr. Fuller, state historian, told in 15 minutes a lot of interesting history of Michigan. Another gentleman, a resident of Ohio and frequent summer visitor to Michigan spoke on "What the business men are looking for for recreation."

His tip to the E. M. T. members was that they were looking to get away from disturbing noises of the city where there is quiet and peace. They want the woods, forests, lakes and streams, away from maddening crowds. They don't like much of the work done by the CCC camps. Since the construction of hundreds of fire lines running thru what was once wilderness and game cover, where there were paths to little-explored regions, now these fire lines lead the world to even the most remote and secluded spots, and everywhere signs point the ways to get there. The "tin-can" tourist who ordinarily is too lazy to seek out these places that are difficult to approach, now parks his trailer to take up the summer residences of himself, his family and friends.

The fellows who make up the large army of spending tourists and wish to get away from the crowds must soon seek regions further north in order to get what they want—probably Canada.

Continuing the speaker said that Northern Michigan is known for being free from hay fever but property owners everywhere watch ragweed and other noxious disease-breeding weeds grow in their communities without concern. Another matter of deep concern with visiting tourists is that they want to know if they are going into a community where there are places that are moral and decent and where high ideals exist.

These, said the stranger, are some of the things that concern your summer tourists. These are some of the things communities must provide if they can hope to hold the better type of summer visitors.

Michigan communities that cater to the patronage coming out of this second largest state industry—the tourist business—must wake up if they hope to keep this flow of gold that comes to Northeastern Michigan. The views of outsiders as presented by the speaker should awaken all of us to see to it that ours is the kind of community they desire and where they are glad to remain and to return to often.

T. Peterson Elected 2nd Vice President

In the election of officers for the ensuing year, Samuel Yockey was succeeded as president by W. J. Antcliff of Brooklyn; Bruce Anderson of Lansing was elected 1st vice president and T. P. Peterson of Grayling, 2nd vice president. T. F. Marston was re-elected secretary-manager and H. A. Chamberlain, Standish, treasurer.

The social affair of the meeting was in the evening when officers and members gathered at Hotel Wenonah for the big banquet. Business was waved to the winds and the vast crowd of about 600 went in for a big time. With bands and orchestras dispensing sane and crazy music and with Judge Arthur Tuttle of the Federal court conducting a Major Bowes Amateur program featuring such untried neophytes as Governor Fitzgerald, State Highway Commissioner Van Wagoner, and other lesser lights, there wasn't a dull moment and everyone lived happily thereafter, to await another such event a year later.

Among those present from Grayling were Mr. and Mrs. T. P. Peterson, Mr. and Mrs. Holger F. Peterson, Miss Ingeborg Hanson, Miss Jean Peterson, and O. P. Schumann.

Womans Club

The Woman's club met at the home of Mrs. McNamara Monday evening, Nov. 16th.

During the business meeting plans were made for the forthcoming Barn Dance and Box Social. The date was set for Monday evening, November 23rd.

This event is for the purpose of raising sufficient funds to provide a proper meeting place for the two groups of Campfire Girls, and for the Milk Fund which supplies milk to undernourished school children.

Following the business meeting the club was entertained by a very interesting and descriptive talk, "My Trip to Europe," by Miss Margrethe Hemmingsen. The club gained some very realistic impressions of the Old World from listening to the experiences of Miss Hemmingsen.

WANTED

The Woman's Club of Grayling is interested in obtaining a room or building for a clubroom which can also be used as a meeting place for the Campfire Girls. Any one having knowledge of such place will please notify the Avalanche office.

VIVA HOESLI AUTUMN BRIDE

St. Mary's rectory was the scene Saturday afternoon of a pretty wedding ceremony when Miss Viva Mae Hoesli, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chris Hoesli, became the bride of Mr. Oscar Schnelker, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Schnelker of New Haven, Ind. The couple spoke their vows at three o'clock before an improvised altar of palms and autumn flowers, Rev. Fr. James Moloney performing the ceremony in the presence of the immediate family and a few friends. As the bridal party entered Mrs. Carl Hanson rendered Lohengrin's wedding march.

The bride was lovely in a floor length gown of ashes of roses moire made with Queen Anne sleeves and collar. A brown bridal halo and brown accessories and an arm bouquet of Talisman roses and bronze bebes mums completed her costume. Her sister Mrs. John Mallinger, as bridesmaid was gowned in green crepe, also made floor length, with which she wore a brown hat and accessories. Her bouquet was of gold and white chrysanthemums. The bride's niece little Patricia Kay Mallinger, as flower girl, was sweet in a pale blue frock with blue bow in her hair and she carried pink and white roses and mums.

In the evening a reception was held for fifty guests at the Hoesli home, the rooms of which were decorated with autumn flowers. The lunch table held the huge two-tiered wedding cake, guarded by white tapers in crystal holders.

Those from out of town, in attendance at the wedding were the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Schnelker of New Haven, Ind., Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Schnelker, Miss Virginia Schnelker, Fort Wayne, Ind., Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Swick, Detroit.

Sunday evening the couple left for Flint where the groom is employed as an inspector for the Buick Motor Company and where they will make their home. The bride is a graduate of Grayling High school and of Owosso Memorial hospital and has hosts of friends who extend congratulations and best wishes.

HOLD ELECTRICAL EXAMS

R. S. King of Oscoda, district electrical inspector, was in Grayling Friday and conducted an examination for electric wiring and lighting.

Among the local persons taking part were Calvin M. Church, Robert Funck, Oliver Cody and John Clark. Besides the above there were four applicants from Gaylord and one from Houghton Lake.

DOGS RUNNING DEER MAY BE SHOT

Dogs running deer in northern Michigan during the current open deer hunting season may be shot by anyone without civil or criminal liability, conservation authorities in Lansing assert. As an accessory in deer hunting, the dog was outlawed in Michigan by legislative act in 1887 and at no time since has it been legal to hunt deer in this state with a dog.

Isn't It So, That---

Things in the funny old world of ours do not always turn out as we have planned.

Questions:

Oh, where are the playmates of yesterday?
The fellows we knew in school?
Oh, what has become of the studious one,
And where, oh where, is the fool?
Oh, what has become of the orator,
Whose passion was to recite?
And the bashful kid who could speak no piece
Unless he succumbed to fright?
Oh, what has become of the model boy,
Who was always the teacher's pet?
And where, oh where, is the tough young nut,
The one we can never forget?

Answers:

The studious one, so we have been told,
Is driving a hack these days;
While the fool owns stock in a bank or two,
And a railroad that always pays.
The orator that we knew so well
Is a clerk in a dry goods store;
While the bashful kid we knew has been
In congress ten years or more.
The model boy is behind the bars
For stealing a neighbor's cow.
And you ask what of the tough young nut?
Oh, he's a preacher now.

POOR SPORTS

We consider any person who will deliberately shoot an illegal deer—doe or buck with shorter than three inch horns—is a darn poor sport. Mistakes can and do happen and nobody can condemn one when it does happen. But reports of wholesale slaughter of does and fawns can only raise the ire of an honest hunter.

It is reported that in one camp where some of the hunters were using shotguns loaded with buckshot and others rifles, eleven dead does, some killed by buckshot and others by bullets, were found there within a few days after the hunting season opened. Whether the occupants of that camp killed these illegal deer is not certain; it can't be proven. However some person or persons did it.

Game wardens say the slaughter of illegal deer has been greater this year than in any former season. Whenever these are found soon after being shot, they are dressed and the meat distributed to families on the welfare, so at least there is some saving. But scores are not found before the meat is spoiled and not fit for consumption.

A woman hunter says she was waiting on a deer runway when she heard a shot near by. Looking in the direction from where the shot came she saw a wounded doe deer coming toward her. In an instant later she heard another shot and the doe dropped and a hunter came running toward the deer. When he saw the woman he turned and left on a dead run, covering up the numbers on his license card. Here was a deliberate violation of the law, and no doubt there have been many others just as flagrant.

A few arrests have been made and convictions had but most of the illegal-deer shooters will go free. The public will never know who they are but at least we can catalog them as cheap sports.

Fred Bloetscher and son Frederick and a party of friends of Detroit, were among the deer hunters here for the opening of the hunting season. Frederick, who had a leave of absence from school, proved himself a real hunter when he refrained from shooting a deer until he was sure it was a legal one, and thus let a three-inch spike horn slip away from him. Many hunters would have shot first and looked afterward. Frederick proved himself a good sport and that means that he is a good citizen as well.

KILL TIMBER WOLF

"Good riddance" is well exemplified in the killing of a large timber wolf by O. C. Lewis and James DuBois of Vassar this forenoon.

The men had been deer hunting in the region southwest of the Military reservation and on Tuesday they discovered a large timber wolf chasing a young fawn deer. Since that time they had been on the lookout for this vicious predator. This morning it was again seen. The men followed, hoping to be able to get a shot, but it eluded them. Persistence, however, rewarded the men and the wolf was discovered lurking on a deer runway. It was quickly dispatched, requiring several shots. They brot it to town where it attracted a lot of attention this forenoon. It is believed that it had a mate, and that it is still at large.

Dealers all over the United States are placing before the public their new 1937 model automobiles. Well, here is where we are going to let Mr. John Public in on our little secret. Right now Willard Cornell, coach of the Grayling basketball team is working on a new model. This 1936-37 model is to be changed a great deal. Last season we had Smock, Lovely, Borchers, Brady, and Hanson. But they all graduated in June so now Coach Cornell has replaced these fine, serviceable old sparkplugs with new ones. If you happen to hear Mr. Cornell say, "Shift to the right, Smock," it would not be Donnie that the public knows so well. Instead it would be his brother Howard who is trying for the forward position. Ed Chalker is one forward that has seen varsity work for two years and should not have to be replaced.

Other young hopefuls trying for the forward jobs are: Bowen, Jorgenson, Dunham, Deckrow, Smith and J. H. Peterson.

Borchers' name will not be listed as center when you look over the box numbers of the coming season either. But you may see the handle of Joseph, Moshier, Kraus, or Feldhauser, all working for the center position.

Seven fellows are really putting up a fight for a chance to show their stuff as guards on the varsity. Among the hopefuls are B. Hanson (he has a brother to look up to—George, we shall see); Dunham, Coutts, McClain, Lovely (He has a brother too), Hull and Martin.

Now, don't you think the team is due for a great change? But this new model is going to be some mechanism after it has worked out together for a few more weeks. At present Coach Cornell's squad is practicing at both Frederic and Roscommon as our gym floor is in the process of being replaced. It is certainly fine to be able to get this model ready for show even though we have no gym of our own. The two neighboring schools have been very considerate to let us, the green and white organization, now practice in their gym and it is appreciated by Mr. Cornell and the school as a whole.

The coach is quite enthused over the progress of the team. He says: "Best squad I have ever had as far as equal ability goes. As things look now several of the Sophomores and Freshmen have a chance to make the varsity. All-in-all the squad looks promising."

Now if you have been having any bad thoughts in your heads concerning this new model of this year's team, you had better get them out of your mind because the Coach has confidence in the new material so there must be something in it. And if you do not believe there is going to be excellent performance from this 1936-37 model, just read the before mentioned names again. You will remember having seen them play last year. A few saw action on the second team.

Again we wish to thank Fred and Roscommon for the use of their gyms because if it were not for them the new model could not go on display before the Grayling public on the night of Dec. 4th when they tangle with Harbor Springs here. That will be the first of nine hair-raising home games. Others to follow are: Gaylord, Roscommon, Kalkaska, West Branch, Alpena, Manelona, Boyne City and East Jordan.

Season tickets will go on sale in the near future at the nominal sum of $1.50, and 50 cents.

Mount Ararat Twin-Peaked
Mount Ararat is a twin-peaked mountainous area situated where Armenia and Persia meet, south of the Caucasus range. It is noteworthy for its extensiveness rather than its height, the highest peak being something under 17,000 feet. The mountain is of volcanic origin. Its lower regions are inhabited and the summits have been repeatedly ascended and thoroughly explored. The usual statement that Noah's Ark rested on Mount Ararat has no foundation in the Hebrew text, which reads "on the mountains of Arrarat." In ancient times Ararat was the name of a district in eastern Armenia, and sometimes also for all Armenia and the mountain ridge in the southern part of that country.

Small Towns Dangerous
Two-thirds of all traffic accidents throughout the United States in the year 1935 occurred in small towns under 10,000 population and in rural areas.

Gentlemen like to find good cake and fried chicken in their boxes at the box social.

There's a big surprise in store for those who attend the party to be held in the basement of St. Mary's church next Sunday night.

Funeral services were held, November 12th, at Battle Creek, for Gordon William Miller, age 27, an enrollee of Camp Kalkaska, who passed away Thursday morning at Mercy Hospital. He had been ill for over two weeks, with pneumonia.

"The Big Broadcast of 1937" is the feature to be shown at the Rialto Theatre next Sunday, Monday and Tuesday. Among the cast are Jack Benny, George Burns, Gracie Allen, Bob Burns, Martha Raye and others, and Benny Goodman and his orchestra.

Say, wait a minute! Don't make any dates for Monday night excepting the box social at the school auditorium.

In our article about the death of George Knecht last week it was stated that he was caretaker of the trout rearing ponds near Whip-poor-will club which belonged to Toledo parties. Instead the ponds are the property of Henry B. Smith, Jr. We're glad to make this correction.

Rev. and Mrs. Fred E. Hart of Marlette, and Rev. and Mrs. Wm. Smith of Lum are here for the week deer hunting. Rev. Hart was formerly located at Frederic as pastor of the M. P. church.

We believe the Chris R. King family broke the deer kill record Sunday when C. R. and his four sons each hunted that day and brot home four deer. Thus four out of five licenses were filled the first day of the season. Can anyone match this record in Michigan? We would like to know.

Herbert Walters was the victim of an unusual experience, one day this week, when a good-sized spikehorn bounded out of the bushes by the roadside and nudged himself before his automobile as he was driving in the region of Higgins Lake. Mr. Walters managed to stop the car in time to avoid a collision and the deer scrambled to his feet and bounded away.

Attend the Thanksgiving Day service at the Danish Lutheran church at eleven o'clock Thanksgiving Day. The Pilgrim fathers inaugurated the first Thanksgiving day as a religious festival. The feasting was secondary and followed the worship service. We hope our community will observe Thanksgiving Day this year in proper fashion—the giving of thanks to God for his bounties.

Napoleon VanNatter has proven himself some hunter. Last Sunday with his family he went over into Presque Isle county and was only in the woods a nan hour or so when he killed a 500 pound bear, coming upon his prey 4 1/2 miles west of the Presque Isle State forest. Mrs. VanNatter and sons Dewey and Harold-Coutts, the latter of Saginaw, accompanied him on the trip.

Mrs. George Bielski has carved a niche for herself in the Grayling Hunters' Hall of Fame by bringing home the bacon in the form of a fine spikehorn, which she secured Sunday afternoon, near School Section Lake. Mrs. Bielski gets a lot of enjoyment out of hunting and goes quite often, however, this is the first time that she has ever brought down a buck. Further proving her competence along that line by doing her own skinning.

Word has been received of the death of Rev. A. D. Warren, age 62, pastor of the F. M. church, of Midland, who passed away Friday morning. Surviving are the widow, two sons, Harold of Fenton; Paul, of Detroit, and one daughter, Blanche, at home. Rev. Warren was formerly District Elder of the Alpena district and has often held services at the local F. M. church and has many Grayling friends.

Turkey and other good things to eat are on the menu for the Sportsmen's supper to be given Tuesday, Nov. 24th by the men of St. Mary's parish, for the benefit of the church. Among the cooks are the well known chefs, Peter and Paul Lovely, which is proof enough that the feed will be a good one. The price of the supper is 50c and serving will begin at 6:00 o'clock. Everyone welcome.

Miss Yvonne Kraus, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Emil Kraus, a member of the freshman class at Marygrove College, Detroit, received her cap and gown during the Investiture ceremony held in the Sacred Heart Chapel on Founder's Day, November 10. It is the tradition at Marygrove College for freshmen to receive their caps and gowns on Founder's Day and to wear them on all formal academic occasions. Immediately preceding the investiture ceremony, Miss Kraus also participated in the annual Founder's Day program.

County Treasurer William Ferguson says that we mentioned all the candidates in our report of the November 3rd election except himself. Checking up we find that he is right. It was a busy week and this oversight may well be overlooked. He made a great run, considering the overwhelming straight-timocratic vote in the country, with 926 votes against Theodore Leslie's 483. The public recognize the fact that Mr. Ferguson is a very able treasurer. All funds are correctly kept and disbursements made exactly according to law and the work and correspondence in the office is kept strictly up-to-date. Honest Bill Ferguson may always be depended upon to do his job promptly and well.

Mr. Jay A. Walsh, president of J. A. Walsh & Co., of Detroit, Birmingham and northern Michigan was stricken with pneumonia Friday at his Chubb Lake property. Mr. Walsh was taken from there to the AuSable Club and Dr. Rifenburg of Gaylord immediately called. Upon examination he was rushed to Mercy Hospital at Grayling. Dr. Rifenburg reports that Mr. Walsh is beyond the critical point and believes him on the way to recovery. Upon notice of Mr. Walsh's illness Mr. Roy C. Hansen, secretary of the Company, came north to take over Mr. Walsh's work in co-operation with Omar W. Werts, the Company's local representative at Gaylord. Mr. Walsh was in northern Michigan on a combination business and hunting trip.

The Public Speaking class held a debate recently on the question: "Resolved That World Peace Can Be Maintained Through Disarmament." Those speaking were:

Negative—Donald Peterson, Herbert Feldhauser, Ervin Cady. Affirmative—John Henry Peterson, Bill Joseph, Kermit Charon.

At the close of the debate a decision was handed down by the other members of the class which favored the negative side by a small margin.

The 7th Grade English classes, under the direction of Miss Bath, are studying the ballads. In a recent ballad writing contest Fay Elaine Christensen was judged the winner. The ballad entitled "The Hunter's Disappointment" is as follows:

As I sat in the forest green
A sleek and shiny deer,
Walked past and sniffed and glanced at me.

Then stood there without fear.

As I raised my gun to aim and fire
I looked into sad eyes
They seemed to say don't shoot at me.

I'm not a worthy prize.

I arose from where I sat
To investigate.

I stubbed my toe upon a stump
And grabbed a tree too late.

Before I knew where I was at
I dived into the snow.

And not a bit of me was out
Except my little toe.

Suddenly I heard a noise
Of someone digging deep.

I felt a sharp and pointed stick
Against my icy cheek.

And then the snow began to fly
Away, and far from me.

The deer had dug me out and now

He stood beside a tree.

I could not kill him after all
But as I turned to go

A sharp report rang through the air.

The deer lay on the snow.

And with that bang came aches
for me.

And I turned very red.
Imagine my surprise and shame

I had fallen out of bed.

Wednesday, Nov. 11th, the ceremony the Legion's representatives,

Mr. Giegling and Mr.
Moore presented the flags to the grades and in a later ceremony presented a flag to the High school. The ceremony was part

Picture Contest Gets Off to Nice Start

Public Appears Willing to Lend Hand in Developing Tourist Trade.

The first week of the East Michigan Tourist Association picture contest indicated that people all over eastern Michigan are enthusiastic about the idea. The association feels that this response may be due as much to the public's willingness to aid in the development of the tourist trade as to its desire to share in the prize money. Whatever the cause, it is nevertheless certain that the people are taking a keen interest in the contest, and that the association's photograph files are going to be swelled with interesting views of East Michigan.

CASH FOR CHRISTMAS

With the announcement of the prize winners to come just before Christmas, the awards will no doubt come in handy for the lucky contributors. Fifty dollars in all is being given away as follows:

First prize.....	$25.00
Second prize.....	10.00
Third prize.....	5.00
Fourth prize.....	5.00
Fifth prize.....	5.00

Among the Clerks

(By J. Wellington Bumsted)

Hunting Edition

With so many of our so-called hunters in from the woods every evening, it is little wonder that the ears of the city are ringing loud and long with all kinds of "yarns" so common in hunting season.

A good many of the boys have already shown their prowess by bringing in their big fellows and coming in for the usual slaps on the back that always accompanies a how-about-bringing-around-a-little-hunk attitude. Best thing to do is wait until it's eaten before circulating the news of how tender the venison tasted.

Don't think Jimmy Bugby is slipping! He brought in his spike horn Tuesday after nine minutes and thirty-six seconds of hunting. From the looks of the rope and the stake, it wouldn't surprise me if he had it tied up in some backwoods—just waiting for the opening of the season, and then had difficulty in finding it.

Oh, yes, Leland Marshall got his, too—The usual Monday morning headache.

There ought to be some sort of stimulant to keep a fellow in "trigger condition" during the hunt. The very first day of the season a splendid 10-point buck surprised Bill Hunter sleeping on the runway and was out of range before he got his right eye opened.

Rudy Harrison has ventured forth, hours before breakfast, fairly bristling with three high-powered guns, and what does he get for his trouble—a measly buck rabbit.

Oh, well, there's sure to be a day of reckoning when fellows like Tony (Fudge) Gross, equipped with an over-sensitive sportsmanship complex, will manage to surprise a buck running at a dead gallop and will then be eligible for a sportsman's kill.

"Tootsie" Peterson can also boast loud and long; having brought home a regular moose from Traverse City. They say he is having the head sketched by a famous New York artist—the poster to be hung at the Company store. Evidently he doesn't think much of his chances during coming seasons.

Lou Wheeler is serving soothing food to returned hunters during the evening at the Plaza Grill; having changed places with sister, Blanche, who is now working at the Shoppenagons Inn.

Born of Whig Reforms
London University traces back to the Whig reforms of the early eighteen hundreds. It began with a proposal made in 1825 for the establishment of a university to educate the sons of the "middling rich" who could pay up to $500 a year, including the cost of keeping their sons at home, but could not afford the $1,250 a year which it cost to send them away to Oxford or Cambridge.
